

Oklahoma Chapter Presents:

Advanced Family Law Concepts

Theory and Practice—Alimony, Property and Tax issues

Michael Mullins and Jon L. Hester Moderators

Tulsa: OSU Tulsa Campus September 13, 2018

Norman: OU College of Law, September 14, 2018

6 hours CLE credit including 1 hour of ethics

The program will focus on alimony and property division issues in Oklahoma matrimonial cases and includes a section on ethics.

Topics include: Developments in alimony law and practice, identifying tax issues, identifying real and phantom income and use of the same, evidentiary issues, expert witnesses and Daubert issues, and ethics

Speakers: Richard Wagner, Kenneth Klingenberg, Michael Mullins, Jon Hester, Virginia Henson, Catherine Petersen

Registration: Fee: $175 prior to September 8, 2018, $200 thereafter

Program check-in begins at 8:30 a.m. Program begins at 9:00 a.m. and closes at 3:50 p.m.

Materials will be available electronically.

Food & Drinks: Continental Breakfast and Lunch provided on site

REGISTRATION

Name, Address & OBA # _____

Email Address _____

Date attending: (Circle one) September 13 September 14

Payment: ___ Check attached (payable to Oklahoma Chapter AAML)

Credit Card _____ Exp. _____ Billing Zip Code _____

Send Checks to Jon L. Hester/16311 Sonoma Park Drive / Edmond OK 73013

OR Credit Card Registration to gmayo@hesterlaw.net or mail to the above address